Tilghman Art and Artists Wrap-up

Sponsored by Tilghman Waterman's Museum

The combination 4 day event started with a Kids Paint Out where 13 local children, mentored by local artists painted at various locations on the Island. Each child was awarded a certificate and treated to a picnic dinner. On Thursday, 44 of the 58 juried Plein Air artists had their canvases stamped at TWM and headed out to paint scenes of our fair Island. The Artist's Choice Award went to Robert Simone who painted a Bugeye on blocks at Severn Marine. The art was moved to the Fire Hall for the 2 Day Exhibit of Tilghman Art and Artists. The visitor response was amazing! The local artists sold 8 paintings, one competition painting was sold, and one Bill Cummings print was sold. Thank you to everyone who helped make this event possible!

Women Working on the Water Read the story and view the great photos online of Lois Lednum in Baltimore Magazine. <http://www.baltimoremagazine.net/2016/7/11/waterwomen-a-handful-of-heroines-work-the-chesapeake-bay> or check out it out on the Tilghman Waterman's Museum Facebook page.
