Do you Remember the Summer Fishing Fairs?

TWM is planning a new exhibit featuring the Fishing Fairs and Fishing Party Businesses of Tilghman. If you have pictures, stories to share or memorabilia from this era, please contact Hall or Mary @ 410-886-2930. Your pictures will be scanned and returned. Help us tell the story of this special time in Tilghman history.

Sherwood Seminar: Tuesday, January 16th, 7:00 PM at Lowes Wharf

This Seminar will be full of facts and discussion about two subjects of importance to those concerned about the Bay: water quality and sediments flowing from the Susquehanna River. Dr. Greg Silsbe and Dr. Larry Sanford from Horn Point Laboratory will describe how drones and satellites are used to determine real time water quality and the "real" facts about the sediments in Conowingo Dam, respectively. Come at 6:30 for the social (beverages and snacks may be purchased). Contact Bill Kennedy (410-886-1072) for information.

The Sheep Trail – Update Thank you to all who helped our sheep find their way home just in time to visit the baby Jesus with their shepherds! Thank you as well to all the businesses who helped make the Sheep Trail possible. The sheep and the prizes they carried now have new homes as well. The prize winners have been notified by their preferred method. Pastor Mary Catherine

Helping Hands Helping Hands is thankful for your gifts of food and financial support throughout the year, even more so the cold months of the year. Remember our watermen that have not been able to get out during this deep freeze – be encouraged to take advantage of the food pantry.
