Beyond the Book Swap @ Tilghman Post Office

A room of about 200 square feet is now available, just across from the Tilghman Watermen's Museum. Unfunded by Talbot County, the new library would require financial support from Island residents, along with a few volunteers to keep things organized. The first step is the library survey. The Survey has been distributed to all who receive What's Happenin' by email. Hardcopies are available at the Post Office. The deadline was Feb. 18th but surveys are still being accepted.

St. John's Chapel Monthly Community Service March 4th @ 10:00 AM

The doors are open at St. John's Chapel. If it has been a while since you have been in church, come as you are and celebrate worship and the Word with Rev. Rob and Linda King

TWM publishes What's Happenin' as a community service. Hard copies are available at the Tilghman Post Office and Two if by Sea Café or on our website: tilghmanmuseum.org. For an email version-send email address to twm6031@gmail.com. Next issue, March 7, 2018. Please submit information and events in by Monday, March 4, 2018
