Volume 10-Number 10

The Tilghman Watermen's Museum is pleased to announce a new first: on Monday, May 20th they awarded two academic scholarships to local seniors Taylor Lyons and Jozie Wilson. Taylor will study diesel mechanics and Jozie will study to become a physical therapist starting at Chesapeake College and finishing at Salisbury University... TAYA awarded scholarships to Savannah Stewart and Eve Yaccapino. Congratulations are also in order for Joyce Crow and the teaching staff at Tilghman Elementary School for preparing these students for a bright future. We will miss you Joyce and wish you well in your retirement!

2019 Plein Air Easton's 15th Anniversary Save the Date for Tilghman Events

Thursday, July 11th, the competition artists will be painting on our beautiful island. Their paintings from that day will be on display at Wylders at 6 pm. You are invited to attend and view the paintings, meet the artists and purchase a painting.

Friday, July 19 from 9 am - 12 noon. Master artist Jove Wang will giving a demonstration at the Avalon Theater in Easton. Tilghman Island waterman and boat builder, Johnny Kinnamon will be his subject!! This is a ticketed event.

Congratulations to part time Tilghman resident, Mary Veiga, who has been juried into Plein Air -Easton, 2019 as one of the 58 competition artists. Mary and her family have a home on Gibsontown Road.
