Tilghman Watermen's Museum Receives Sharp Recovery Grant

As part of the American Rescue Plan (ARP) Act of 2021, the National Endowment for Humanities (NEH) received supplemental funding to distribute to support economic recovery for cultural institutions adversely affected by COVID. Maryland Humanities was allocated funds to distribute to non-profit organizations that provide opportunities for communities to access and engage with public history, cultural heritage and civic learning during this time. TWM will use these funds for interpretive signage in the new outdoor exhibits planned for Spring opening!

TWM Announces New Board Members

TWM is an all-volunteer organization. As we prepare to open the season, we are proud to announce the appointment of two new board members. Stan Howeth grew up on Tilghman. His family had a seafood business and owned the Knapps Narrows Marina at one time. He retired after a successful career as VP of Audit Services at Purdue. Chris Spurry, a St. Michaels native grew up working on the water with his uncle and father and has strong Tilghman roots. He is a successful businessman with a diverse entrepreneurial background and extensive board experience.
