Opening

March 3, 2023!

March Hours:

Fridays 10-2, Saturdays 10-2

Location: Tilghman Post Office Building

Put Thursday, March 16th on your calendar! That's when Lance Morris and Jeff McGuiness will bring to life the eleven years Frederick Douglass lived in bondage in Talbot County and his triumphant return to the county in the closing decades of his life. Their program features Morris's moving oratory using the words of Frederick Douglass against the backdrop of stunning imagery from McGuiness's 284-page photographic essay, Bear Me Into Freedom: The Talbot County of Frederick Douglass, published by St. Michaels Museum. Please join us at 6:30 PM for coffee and cookies at the Sherwood Church Hall. The program will begin promptly at 7:00 PM.

St. Michael's Library

March 6 Library Lunch & Learn at noon. Jim Duffy will share stories of "Delmarva's Great Dames" Memorable Women of the Region. His talk will focus on fascinating women of Delmarva. Author/storyteller Jim Duffy of Secrets of the Eastern Shore is an award-winning writer and author.

March 13 at noon - Local Artist/Author, Jo Merrill will talk about her recently published book, Living into Darkness and Finding Light – Spiritual Reflections on Life's Final Chapter. This book is a series of essays by George Merrill which were published in The Talbot Spy after he received a terminal cancer diagnosis. He was the author of The Bay of the Mother of God about the Chesapeake Bay.

March 20 at noon - Eugene L Meyer will discuss his book Living History: FIVE FOR FREEDOM: The African American Soldiers in John Brown's Army, with a special emphasis on Frederick Douglass of Talbot County. Mr. Meyer is an author and a journalist, a former longtime reporter and editor for The Washington Post, who has written extensively about Maryland, the Chesapeake Bay and the Eastern Shore.
