Volume 14 – Number 12 – June 7, 2023

On Sunday, June 4th the Patriot Cruise in Saint Michael's hosted 25 of the Ambassadors from the Tilghman Island Watermen's Museum on a narrated historical tour on the Miles River. It was a beautiful sunny day and a great time was had by all! Special thanks to Captain John Marrah and his wife Robin! If you are interested in joining our fabulous team of TWM volunteers, contact Mary Kempf at 301-661-7607.

Community Awareness Meeting - June 15, 2023 – 6:00 pm - Tilghman Fire Hall

County officials will be present to discuss the extension of the sewer to Bar Neck and Fairbank, dredging of Knapps Narrows, playground update and the Working Waterfront Initiative. This meeting is open to all Tilghman residents. Please plan to attend this important meeting

GOT QUESTIONS?
BIBLE STUDY
TUESDAY'S
@ 6:00 PM

STUDY THIS SUMMER

Do you have questions about where the Bible came from? Is it still relevant? What is the difference between the Old and New Testament? Why are there so many denominations and religions in the world?

Are we living in the End Times? Join us on Tuesday's at 6:00 PM for a casual study and discussion about major topics in the Bible.

Now that St John's has air-conditioning.... we can finally offer a class – but only during the daylight savings hours of summer – it is too dark to park in the Fall!
