TWM SPEAKER SERIES VINCE LEGGETT ADMIRAL OF THE CHESAPEAKE

On Saturday, February 24th at 1:00 PM, the Tilghman Watermen's Museum Speaker Series will host Vince Leggett, the Admiral of the Chesapeake, at the Tilghman Island Volunteer Fire Department, 5979 Tilghman Island Road. Mr. Leggett will speak on African American ties to history, culture and waterways of Chesapeake Bay.

Vince Leggett is founder and president of the Blacks of the Chesapeake Foundation (BOCF), whose work brings to light the maritime history of African Americans in the Chesapeake Bay. The foundation maintains a collection of records, artifacts, genealogies, and more than 40,000 photographs representing 200 years of African American life and work in the seafood and maritime industries. The Library of Congress and the U.S. Congress designated BOCF as a Local Legacies project, and former governor of Maryland, Parris N. Glendening, commissioned Leggett as an honorary Admiral of the Chesapeake in 2003.

Mr. Leggett is the author of the book, "The Chesapeake Bay Through Ebony Eyes."

This is a free event, donations accepted!
