VISIT the Tilghman Watermen's Museum to learn more about Tilghman's WATERMEN – Past and Present

Generations of independent fishermen have found a home on the waters of the Chesapeake Bay. They share a love of the estuary and of making a living by harvesting blue crabs, oysters and local fish.

The Tilghman Watermen's Museum awarded scholarships for $1,000 each to three outstanding Seniors who started their education at Tilghman Elementary School.

Brianna Crow, Caeden Harrison, and Henry Mullikin were selected because of their excellent academics and community service involvement. CONGRATULATIONS!

Thank you

The Tilghman Island Volunteer Department would like to thank everyone for their support in funding the new heart monitor we plan to purchase. Having this monitor of our own is very important. The paid county paramedic unit spends a significant amount of time on transfers to the St. Michaels area leaving our department without a heart monitor. The members of the TIVFC are much appreciative for the contributions made by the community for this purchase.

THANK YOU!

TIVFD Pres, J Gottleib

The great picture round-up is under way for our Tilghman Watermen's Museum 2025 Calendar. Because we got so many great photos last year the 2024 calendar was a sell-out success. Hundreds of 2024 Calendars were printed and sold. Help us make the 2025 Calendar even better!

Here are some basic guidelines:

- Tall, skinny pictures and subjects are not as useful. Square or horizontally rectangular photos work better – pictures shaped like a TV screen. 'Landscape' is better than 'portrait'. 8 X 10 works well.
- Pictures of people and boats are especially helpful.
- Children and pets are also really good.
- Sunrises and sunsets come in by the dozens, so the competition in that area makes it tougher to get into the calendar.
- Fall and winter are useful because we don't get as many of those.
- Basically, the more 'Tilghman' a photo is, the more helpful it is. Tilghman people, boats, events, landmarks and buildings
- Phone pictures are OK. The bigger, the better.
- Pictures work better sent as attachments to an email.
- Please don't compress the photos or edit them.
- The photo deadline is September 1st.

Send your photos by replying to this message. The email is harpoon@atlanticbb.net Questions or suggestions? Use the above email to contact Mark Churchill. Thanks to all and get those pictures in!
