Tilghman Watermen's Museum Speaker Series

February 22, 2025 1 pm • TIVFD

The Tilghman Watermen's Museum Speaker Series will host Nick Hargrove from Tilghman Island Seafood

Nick Hargrove was a traditional seafood buyer and processor on the Eastern Shore until the declining crab population made him change direction. With encouragement from potential customers, he converted the old packing house at Phillips Wharf on Tilghman Island to a state-of-the-art facility for processing wild Chesapeake blue catfish. By supplying ice to the watermen who catch the catfish, hiring a staff that is passionate about the environment, and processing the fish as soon as they are offloaded, Tilghman Island Seafood is sending blue catfish throughout the U.S. to satisfied chefs.

Sunday Service at 10 AM.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Children's Church on Sunday at 10 AM

Tilghman Methodist Church is hosting a lock-in for Tilghman Youth on Friday, February 28 at 6 pm. The purpose of the lock-in is for youth to learn how children in other parts of the world live without enough food, shelter, and clean drinking water. The youth will raise money by asking the public to join them for a pancake breakfast on Saturday morning March 1 from 8 am to 9 am. Donations will be received to support World Vision. For information contact Pastor Dave at 410-886-2197.

Mary Jane Fairbank

Mary Jane was a one-of-a-kind original Eastern Shore woman having lived in the triangle of Tilghman Island, Poplar Island and Sherwood her entire life. She was known as a master cook and baker and would always provide the classic fare and treats for her family, friends and neighbors whom she cherished. An all-day or all-night card game was her favorite entertainment joy. Her time as a young woman on the Poplar Islands provided the opportunity to meet U.S. Presidents and many Congressional leaders as her parents managed the Jefferson Island Club until the club moved after a devastating clubhouse fire. Just a couple of years ago she donated a table saved from the fire. It was used by President Franklin D. Roosevelt for signing documents on Jefferson Island in front of the press. The photo and table are now displayed at the Tilghman Watermen's Museum on Tilghman Island.

She volunteered regularly and always found joy in lending a helping hand including teaching visitors about the wonders of waterman's wharf at the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum. She was deeply involved in the Sherwood Methodist Church, Eastern Star, PAL Class of Sherwood and other organizations. As age progressed, her home of 60 years in Sherwood was filled with memories and frequent visits from family, treasured neighbors and friends. ❄️
